Stories Of LGBTQ Veterans And Filmmaker Arthur Dong In Person

April 2 from 2-4 pm Senior Pride presents Serving with Honor, Not Equality: LGBTQ Veterans, World War II to Now, at the Jewish Community Center, 3800 E. River Rd.

“Meet and Greet” for networking and resources at 1 pm.

No admission.

Nationally celebrated documentary filmmaker Arthur Dong in person will screen his classic documentary about LGBT soldiers during World War II, Coming Out Under Fire, and discuss issues raised in the film.

Following Dong, Robert Bell, event chair, will introduce Erin Russ, Southern Arizona Gender Alliance Director of Programs, and Jennifer Dane, of the American Military Partner Association. LGBT veterans will relate moving stories of serving before, during and after “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell.”

Arthur Dong’s appearance is made possible through a collaboration between the Tucson Chinese Cultural Center and Southern Arizona Senior Pride.

Academy Award-Nominated independent producer for “Licensed to Kill,” Arthur Dong has received many awards. More information about Dong is posted on soazseniorpride.org. This event is made possible thanks to the LGBT&S Alliance Fund and Senior Pride donors. PCOA is also a sponsor.

April 1 from 5-9 pm at the Tucson Chinese Cultural Center, 1288 W. River Rd., Arthur Dong will screen and discuss his film Forbidden City, USA. The film is preceded by dinner at 5 pm with the film at 6:15 pm. There is no charge but seating is limited. Call for reservations at (520)292-6900.

The film spotlights San Francisco’s all Chinese American nightclub with its unique showcase of Chinese American performers in the 30’s and 40’s.
